THURSDAY, JAN. 26, 1911

From the noise some folks make when Mr. Jones' resignation is mentioned, we judge that they must think he has a pre-paid lifetime lease on the Congressional air.

One disciple of this doctrine says: "Such a suggestion is untimely even coming from an opponent of Mr. Jones." We are unconscious of having expressed any ideas antagonistic to that gentleman. We have voted for him for Congress every time it has been our privilege to vote in a congressional election. In last week's issue we expressed our admiration of his many good qualities and stated positively that as yet we had no choice between the two candidates. We therefore advocated his resignation not because we were partial to his opponent but because we believe that resignation would strengthen him with the voters of the State, which belief is being confirmed every day by the expressions of a similar nature from intelligent and prominent citizens of this and other sections. Also we advocated his resignation because we desired to see a gentleman, in every way his peer, represent this District in Congress.

"If this be treason, make the most of it."

Said some "speaker at the Democratic jubilee, held last week in Baltimore, "The Democrats will surely swim into power in 1912 unless some d— fool rocks the boat." Here we have a truth rather more forcible than elegantly expressed, but the truth never-the-less.

Never let it get into your head that an editor can live on the hot air his propagators. Remember that people expect him to pay his bills and enable him to do so by moving up your subscription when it is due.

General News
Miss Ruth M. S. Ashburn, of Irvington, and Mr. Edward G. Smith, of Portsmouth, were married in Baltimore, Wednesday.

Colonel and Mrs. Levin Winder Lane Jr., of Williamsburg have announced the engagement of their daughter, Martha, to Ashton Dorell, the wedding to take place the latter part of February.

Three candidates have already announced themselves for the Clerkship in Middlesex. Messrs. C. W. Eastman, Thos. B. Evans and J. William Daniel are the candidates.

Hon. Clark, of the House of Representatives by the Democratic Caucus which met on Friday. The election was held at this early date in order that things may be in working condition when the Democrats go into power in March.

Senator Martin submitted an amendment to the army bill, proposing to appropriate $200,000 for the purchase of land accessible to the horse-raising section of Virginia for assembling, grazing and training horses purchased for the mounted service of the army. This is an important undertaking for Virginia, as the government desires to secure an available location near Washington for raising horses for the army. P. H. McG.

Ice Plant
Mr. Porter, of Norfolk is in the company this week selling stock for an ice plant which he desires to establish at Crickett Hill. It is planned to build a factory having a ten ton per day capacity, and estimated to cost about $20,000. This is a worthy project and an investment that properly managed should yield good returns.

School Fair
Editor Journal—The Mathews school children demand that we must have another "School Fair" We are going to undertake a fair this fall at the court house. A School Fair pure and simple, with nothing to attract attention from the efforts of the school boy and girl. The children are intensely interested in this fair, about 250 have already entered their names as exhibitors. The teachers are all working to help get the prizes, $43, having been subscribed by five schools. We have gotten out a very attractive list, for the exhibits. And it can secure suitable prizes for all of this list, we shall have a school fair that Mathews will be proud of.

I would like to take this opportunity to appeal to the friends of the children to help us out with these prizes. Please send Mr. W. M. Minter, at the court house your names and the amounts that you subscribe, and he will acknowledge the amount through the Journal. We want to know now what we can count on so that we can arrange the amount of each prize in our catalogue to be published soon, the name of the donor of the prize.

I feel that I owe an apology to the Gentlemen who contributed the prizes for our fair last fall for not acknowledging the amount donated by them through the Journal, my article was evidently lost in the mail. I will take this opportunity to make amends.

Order of Publication
In the Clerk's Office of the Circuit Court of the County of Mathews, on the 21st day of January, 1911.

Wm. Sheppard, Jr. Plaintiff, Against Elmore Clark Defendant.

The object of this suit is to recover of the defendant, Elmore Clark the sum of $100.00, as damages for the breach of a contract. And the attachment having been returned executed, and an affidavit having been made and filed that the defendant, Elmore Clark, is not a resident of the State of Virginia, it is ordered that he do appear before the Court on the 26th day of February, 1911, to answer the complaint.

And it is further ordered that a copy hereof be published once a week for four successive weeks in the Mathews Journal, a newspaper published in the County of Mathews, and that a copy be posted at the front door of the court-house of this County on the 6th day of February, 1911, that being the next succeeding rule day after this order was entered. A copy—Teste: Sands Smith, Clerk.

Sustains Injunction
According to reports received by telephone yesterday judge Claggart B. Jones at this term of the Middlesex Court, rendered a decision sustaining the injunction granted a few Middlesex citizens against the operation of a fish factory at Fishing Bay. This decision will probably mean that no fish factory will be built at that point.

Will More Than Wild Beast
The number of people killed yearly by wild beasts don't approach the vast number killed by disease germs. No life is safe from their attack. They're in air, water, dust, even food. But grand protection is afforded by Electric Bitters, which destroy and expel these deadly disease germs from the system. That's why chills, fever and ague, all malarial and many blood diseases yield promptly to this wonderful blood purifier. Try them, and enjoy the glorious health and new strength they give you. Money back if not satisfied. Only 50c at all drug stores.

Escaped With His Life
"Twenty-one years ago I faced an awful death," writes, H. B. Martin, of Harrison, S. C. "Doctors said I had consumption and the dreadful cough I had looked like it, sure enough. I tried everything I could ere of, for my cough, and was under treatment of the best doctor in Georgetown, S. C., for a year but would get no relief. A friend advised me to try Dr. King's New Discovery, and I was completely cured. I feel that I owe my life to this great throat and lung cure." Its positively warranted for coughs, colds, and all bronchial affections. 50c & $1.00. Trial bottle free at all drug stores.

HON. HOWARD C. AVERY
Hon. Howard C. Avery, of Norfolk, will deliver an address at Mathews, C. H., Saturday, Jan. 28th, at 2:30 p. m., under the auspices of Westville Council No. 1737, Royal Arcanum. The public are cordially invited to hear him.

Lee-Jackson Day
Thursday last was a gala day for the Old Vets and the U. D. C. of Mathews. An enormous crowd assembled from all parts of the county to join in the ceremonies and furnished to each speaker an attentive and interested audience.
The choir under the leadership of Mrs. Giles B. Cook, covered them selves with honor. A rump of patriotic and Southern song were rendered by them in delightful fashion.
The first address of the day was delivered by Rev. J. A. Winn, of lower Mathews; a forcible speaker at all times, he was especially so on this occasion as he defended the course of the South and paid beautiful tribute to the character and generalship of her great leaders. The next speaker was Major J. N. Stubbs, of Gloucester. Though suffering from a severe attack of bronchitis the Major made an interesting address, and gifted with a good sense of humor, his reminiscences were greatly enjoyed, especially by the Old Veterans. After the conclusion of his address a recess was called, during which the U. D. C., sold dinners at the Junior order Hall for the benefit of Confederate monument. A considerable sum was realized.
Upon reassembling after dinner the features of the program were taken up in regular order. Rev. H. B. Jordan delivered a scholarly address which was highly appreciated by the audience. He was followed by Hon. G. E. T. Lane. It is scarcely necessary to say that Mr. Lane's address was flowery and eloquent for such is his usual style. He paid special tribute to the veterans of Mathews and to the ladies.
Crosses of Honor were bestowed upon the candidates for same by Mrs. F. L. Jordan, President of the Sallie Thompkins Chapter, U. D. C. In conclusion Major Stubbs made an appeal for funds for the monument which was rewarded by numerous contributions.
